

The Word on the Page

A Writing Group at St Michael's in September 2011

Join us! We invite students and adults of all ages (grade 5 or older) to come take part in our creative and supportive monthly writing workshops. Creativity is a gift from God that is available to everyone.

Why this group? The Youth Commission at St. Michael's organizes activities for the youth of the parish. While some activities have been created specifically for youth, we also want to develop activities that bring together youth and adults.

What we will do? We will meet once a month, starting September 28, at the parish for a two-hour workshop. These meetings will include presentations, exercises, and friendly and supportive discussions. The themes will include various aspects of writing such as creativity, motivation, Catholic writings, and benefits of writing such as spiritual growth.

Led by who? Paul Tremblay, a member of the Youth Commission and a co-editor of the Parish Newsletter, will lead the group and organize the presentations and workshop activities. Volunteers who would like to assist are welcome.

If you are interested. If you would like to join this group in September, please send an email to Paul Tremblay at paultremblay@gmail.com to let us know that you are interested. And for more information, visit us at the Youth Ministry Fair on September 10-11 after each Mass.
